Emma Hall

BSc(Hons), FPFS

Title

Chartered Financial Planner

Background

Emma’s skills were recognised early on in her career when she was voted Newly Qualified Independent Financial Adviser of the Year at the Financial Adviser Life and Pensions awards. She has since secured Chartered status and has been elected a Fellow of the Personal Finance Society.

Advice Areas

Emma specialises in providing advice to private clients and businesses across investments, pensions and protection. She particularly enjoys using cash flow modelling to complete her holistic approach to financial planning.

Interests

A keen runner, Emma also rows competitively for a local team. An avid reader, Emma enjoys reading autobiographies of successful people, particularly women!

My Favourite Part of the Job

Meeting people from all walks of life and helping them set and achieve their financial goals.

Fun Fact

Emma has always been an adrenaline junkie. She’s completed two sky dives and the Nevis bungy jump in New Zealand which is 132 metres high. Still to tick off the list is tornado chasing in America – watch this space...!
